About

With a Master's degree in Mathematics and Computer Science and over 15 years of professional experience (including MBA) in both startups and enterprises, I am a strategic leader specializing in guiding products from initial concept to successful launch. I excel in managing teams of up to 100 members, fostering high-performance cultures, and driving innovation. My collaborative leadership style enables me to engage effectively in both technical and business discussions, whether internally or with clients. My expertise spans WEB2 and WEB3 sectors, leveraging technologies such as JavaScript/TypeScript (React.js, Next.js, Vue.js, Nuxt.js, Svelte, Stencil, Angular), alongside back-end systems using Node.js, Nest.js, Go, Rust, and Move. I am experienced in monolithic, microservices, and serverless architectures deployed on AWS, Azure, and Google Cloud platforms.
